

CASE STUDY

HOW WE MADE IT HAPPEN

Budget Planning and Spending Application

Client

Our client is a fully integrated e-business service provider which provides end-to-end business solutions to organizations, business entities and government agencies. They provide highly flexible solutions that are adaptable to your business processes and infrastructure ensuring seamless integration with your existing applications so you can optimize your IT investment.

Business Need

Client wants to build a complete portal to provide the information for the Citizens of Malaysia where the government wants to promote transparency in government activities and services.

Challenges

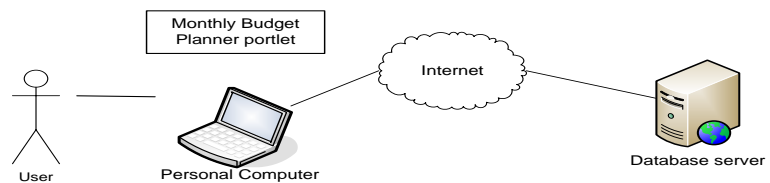

The existing portal had limited features wasn't flexible and extendable to address client's business needs of showing transparency in government activities and services

Solution

Client chose Liferay as the technology platform and selected esquare as the execution partner to build the state of the art Portal which includes the following modules

1. Monthly Budget Planner

This application is effective for users to plan out their monthly budget in systematic way. The objective of Monthly Budget Planner is to help users to plan and maintain on either an accrual or a cash basis.

Industry

Government Sector

Technology

Liferay 6.0 EE

Service Model

Offshore Development

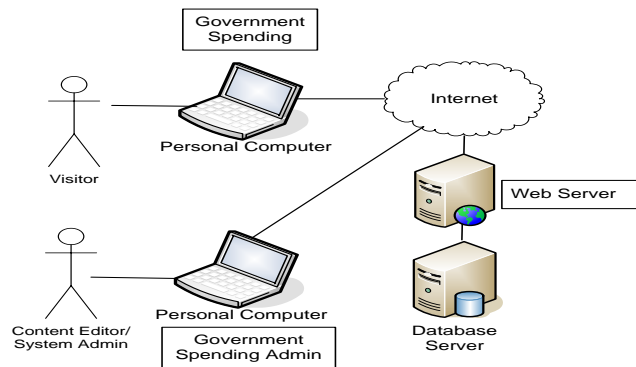

CASE STUDY

HOW WE MADE IT HAPPEN

2. Government Spending Module

Government spending is an application where public can see how and where government spends the capital. The objective of Government Spending has been designed is to acknowledge user about the entire budget spending by government agencies and City Councils. This is also to promote transparency in government activities and services.

ESquare provided end to end solution covering right from requirements, to architecture, to development, to testing support and eventual release.

Key Features

- Fully customized applications with rich user interface
- Graphical chart like pie chart, bar chart using Google Chart to show the government spending dynamically by selecting their search criteria.
- Dynamic security with user authentication at various levels

Result

Achieved the goal of showing transparency in government activities and services for the Citizens of Malaysia

Contact

sales@esquareinfo.com

www.esquareinfo.com